

FISCAL NOTE

SB 472

February 17, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires notice of revocation of driving privileges be sent certified mail to anyone convicted of a second or subsequent DUI. The Department of Safety would be required to revoke the registration of any vehicle solely owned and registered by the offender. After expiration of the license suspension period, the offender could register the vehicle by paying the regular registration fee and an additional $25, but the vehicle must use special tags labeled DUI.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - $125,000
Increase State Expenditures - $98,500 Recurring
$20,000 One-Time

Revenues: Assumes that 5,000 offenders will opt to register a vehicle under the conditions of the bill (5,000 x $25 = $125,000)

Expenditures: Time	Recurring	One-
Personnel	$40,000	$
Operational Expense		4,000
Postage	37,000
